

NEW SCIENTIFIC
INTERNATIONAL NETWORK

Post-mining Architecture Landscape Design

September 4th
2021

PALAZZO MICHIEL
4391 Strada Nova
30121 Campo Santi Apostoli
VENICE, ITALY

ENTIRELY BROADCASTED BY ZOOM
Zoom link will be sent to registrants

REGISTER FOR PARTICIPATION
<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/scientific-international-network-post-mining-network-tickets-158593618783>

École Nationale
Supérieure
d'Architecture et de
Paysage de Lille

LACTH
CONCEPTION / TERRITOIRE / HISTOIRE / MATERIALITE

mission
bassin minier
NORD - PAS DE CALAIS

paris-belleville
école nationale supérieure d'architecture

UNIVERSITÉ
PARIS-EST

ipraus

institut parisien
de recherche architecture
urbanistique société

chaireacclimater

habiterpost-expérimenterminier

THE DAY WILL BE BROADCASTED. A ZOOM LINK WILL BE SENT TO ALL REGISTERED PERSONS

9h00 Introduction,

Chair « Acclimatize post-mining territories »

Prof Béatrice Mariolle (Lille National School of Architecture and Landscape, / Laboratory Ipraus, France) et Prof Daniela Poli (Florence University, Italy).

9h15 Les biens français à l'UNESCO et le Bassin minier du Nord et du Pas-de-Calais.

French UNESCO World Heritage sites and the Mining Basin of Northern France.

Jean-François Caron, Mayor of Loos-en-Gohelle, President of the Association of French World Heritage UNESCO (sous réserve).

9h30 Les cités minières face aux enjeux de demain.

The mining cities facing the challenges of tomorrow.

Dominique Soyer (Maisons et Cités, France).

9h45 La «treille minière», une source de projets pour le Bassin minier du Nord pas de Calais, patrimoine mondial de l'Unesco.

The Mining Treillis network, a source of projects for the Nord Pas de Calais Mining Basin, Unesco World Heritage.

Raphaël Alessandri (Mission Bassin minier, France).

10h00 De la cité des électriciens à la Valeur universelle exceptionnelle.

From the township of electricians, to the outstanding universal value.

Prof Philippe Prost (Belleville National School of Architecture, Ipraus, France).

10h15 The Somewhere Project.

Jeffrey Johnson, Brent Sturlaugson (Kentucky University, USA).

10h30 Charleroi- Landscape 'As Found'.

Shubhra Kansal (KU Leuven, Belgium).

10h45 Debate - coffee break.

11h30 Ecological restoration infrastructure at the Copiapo's river in a post-mining degraded landscape in Tierra Amarilla (Chili).

Johans Figueroa (Chile- Genève).

11h45 Spatial Strategy Process 2038+ in Rheinischen Mining Region and the Integration of the Intangible Cultural Heritage.

Prof Christa Reicher, Marie Enders M.S.c. (RWTH Aachen University, Germany).

12h00 Planeta Petrila (Roumanie).

Cristina -Lucia Sucala (Ironbridge International Institute of Cultural Heritage, Birmingham University, UK).

12h15 Repair/take care of VS Maintain/pay attention of : How to design a "milieu" in post-mining territory of Saint-Etienne?

Prof Georges-Henri Laffont (ENSA de Saint-Etienne, France).

12h30 Geographical and cultural limitations in the post-mining development strategy. Case study from the Jiu Valley coal basin, Romania.

Sanda Nicola (Liège University, Belgium).

12h45 Debate.

13h00 Lunch accompanied by reading of literary texts "Redescribing mining territories: literature, fragments, elements".

Ruth Oldham, Laurie Gangarossa.

14h30 Reclaiming the Planet. 2021_Abitibi-Témiscamingue: Three ecologies.

Prof Alessandra Ponte, Orit Halpern (UDM, Canada).

14h45 Matière et territoire.

Material and territory.

Prof Elena Cogato Lanza (EPFL, Switzerland).

15h15 "Ethics and Experiment in Mine Remediation" in Northern Canada.

Arn Keeling, Caitlynn Beckett (Memorial University, Canada).

15h30 Round tables.

Post-Mining Network : goals, public, exchanges.

17h00

Summary of round tables and debates.

18h00

Conclusion.

The Chair «Acclimatize post-mining territories» is labeled "Architecture and Innovation" by the French Ministry of Culture and headed by Lille's School of Architecture and Landscape (ENSAPL). Its scientific direction is ensured by Béatrice Mariolle (ENSAPL) and Daniela Poli (Università degli Studi di Firenze) and the steering committee is composed of the Mission Bassin Minier, Regional Office of Cultural Affairs of Hauts de France Region and Maisons-et-Cités.

Event In partnership with European Cultural Center and its exhibition «Time, Space, Existence».

Scientific committee of this meeting is provided by : Raphaël Alessandri , Margarita Dekina., Jean-Baptiste Marie, Béatrice Mariolle, Daniela Poli, Mélusine Pagnier, Philippe Prost, Frank Vermandel.

Organisational Committee : Constance Bogucki, Margarita Dekina, Silvia Doré, Martin Fessard, Mélusine Pagnier.

This day will be accompanied by the exposition of student's works produced during the creative and participatory workshop entitled "Infinite resources, new building materials"

Contact Margarita Dekina, Béatrice Mariolle: chairepostminier@gmail.com